Rev. Dr. Don Wagner is an ordained Presbyterian clergy and longtime Palestinian rights activist, scholar, and author. His recent memoir: "GLORY TO GOD IN THE LOWEST: JOURNEYS TO THE UNHOLYLAND" recounts his spiritual journey from conservative Christianity to solidarity with the poor, & anti-war, anti-racism, and Palestinian rights activism.

Janet Lahr Lewis lived and served in Palestine and Israel from 1994 to 2014. From 2001 to 2018 she was a United Methodist missionary and the United Methodist Liaison in Palestine and Israel from 2006 to 2014. Upon her return to the U.S. in 2014, she served as Advocacy Coordinator for the Middle East with the General Board of Church and Society in Washington D.C. until her retirement in 2018.
